THEY'RE ANGRY.

And Say Hampton Would Not Have Been Lynched.

Kentuckians Refuse to Accept Buchwalter's Decision as Final.

They Will Retaliate by Arresting a Criminal Wanted in Cincinnati, Now in Ken-tucky, and Holding Him as a Hostage to Insure Hampton's Delivery.

GREENSBURG, Ky., Jan. 8.—The state of Kentucky and the people of Green county refuse to accept Judge Buchwalter's decision as final in the Hampton case, and a clever plan has been conceived to circumvent any further objects to Hampton's extradition when he is again arrested. The scheme threatens to create an issue which will result to the advantage of fugitives from fustice.

Cincinnati police want a Negro who is now in Kentucky, and before fortyeight hours have passed this Negro will be in the custody of Kentucky authorities. He will then be held as a hostage to insure the delivery of Hampton. If he is not surrendered the fugitive from Ohio will not be turned over to Ohio authorities.

Great indignation and excitement prevails here over Hampton's release. Judge W. H. Reeves and other conservative citizens say that there never has been any danger of Hampton's being lynched. A reporter interviewed twenty representatives of Green county, all of whom denounce Hampton's assertion that he would be lynched as absurd and without foundation. Schoolhouses and churches are plentiful in this community, and all citizens seem to be opposed to any violation of Hampton would have been in no danger of being lynched had he been brought back. It is said that a warrant will be issued against him here for bigamy also. Another requisiton will be applied for. Citizens of Green county feel that the fair name of the community is involved, and wi'l resort to any lawful expedient to have the fugitive brought back and tried.

THE VANDERBILTS.

Columbia College to Receive a Million From Them and Others.

New York, Jan. 8 .- Three important announcements were made at the regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of Columbia college Monday. Chairman W. C. Schermerhorn, who presided, first announced a subscription of $350,000 from the Messrs. C. K., W. K. and Geo. K. Vanderbilt for the erection of additional buildings to the Vanderbilt clinic. He supplemented this announcement with a second to the effect that Mrs. W. D. Sloan, who was a Vanderbilt, and her husband had subscribed $100,000 for the erection of an addition to the Sloan Maternity hospital. The third announcement was that two gentlemen had guaranteed the necessary $500,000 for the erection of two new buildings for Columbia college on Riverside Heights. The names of the two gentlemen were withheld. The gift of Cornelius Vanderbilt and his brothers is given in memory of their father, William H. Vanderbilt, who built the present Vanderbilt clinic.

The board of trustees accepted the gifts with appropriate resolutions.

The Extraordinary Grand Jury. NEW YORK, Jan. 8 .- The extraordinary grand jury, about which there has been so much interest, was impaneled Monday morning in the court of Oyer and Terminer, Judge Ingraham presiding. District Attorney Fellows said Monday morning that he was not going to try any police cases Mon-"We require more preparation." day. "We require more preparation." cases, and that is the only reason they will not be called for a few days." In charging the jury Judge Ingraham said that serious charges had been made before a legislative committee against public officials, and they must be investigated.

Emigrant Inspection.

London, Jan. 8 .- The Paris correspondent of the Central News says that the United States embassy in that city authorizes a denial of the reports that France protested against the presence at French ports of American inspect-ors of emigrants. On the contrary, it is asserted at the embassy, every facility is given to the inspectors by the French authorities.

JAY GOULD'S WEALTH.

At the Time of the Great Financier's Death His Personality Was Worth $73,-

New York, Jan. 8 .- Lawyer David McClure, who, in March, 1893, was appointed appraiser by the surrogate to fix the value of the estate of the late Jay Gould at the time of his death, with a view to determine the amount of tax that should, be imposed upon the personal property, has made his re-port, in which he finds the value of the personal estate of the late millionaire to have been $80,954,580.79, less the amount of debts, $6,553,520.71, and legscies, annuities, etc., to his brothers, sisters, grandson of $1,156,513, making the amount of the residuary estate to be $73,224,547.08.

Mr. McClure says in his report that it was found at the outset of the hearings that they would be protected, and it was then determined by the executors of the estate to deposit with the controller an amount which in their judgment would meet the taxes to be paid upon the property. The executors then paid $600,000 to the controller. upon the assumption that the personal estate would not exceed $60,-

Each of the six children of Mr. Gould is entitled to a life estate, in trust, in one-sixth of the residuary estate, with the remainder to their children. Unare liable to taxation, while formerly they were not. This will reduce the tax considerably. So it is expected the executors will be entitled to recover from the $600,000 which they paid to the state a small sum in their

THREE KILLED.

Two Freight Trains Meet on the Same Track Near Smithville, O.

Massillon, O., Jan. 8 .- A collision between two freight trains on the Wheeling and Lake Erie railway, one mile east of Smithville, at dawn Monday morning caused the general officers to hurry to the scene with wrecking crews, surgeons and every available railroad man in the yards. Extra No. 23 passed through Orrville with the caboose in front of the engine. At Orrville it was boarded by Erwin Langsdorf, a young man who had been spending the evening with his best of Chicago is receiving many communigirl. A few minutes later his neck was broken. As No. 23 left Orville No. 63 was coming east from Smithville. Whether the orders were improperly ssued or improperly constructed is yet unknown. A collision was inevitable, and it came with scarcely a moment's notice. Young Langsdorf was killed legislation becomes an open question, by the shock, as stated.

W. J. Ryan, of Norwalk, fireman on No. 63, was caught on the cab of his engine, and with his head braced against the furnace door died in awful be unwise. Mr. Cannon said that the agony, his body slowly cooking to below the shoulders. Conductor Joseph Ramus, of Norwalk, jumped to the ground, fracturing several ribs, and breaking an arm. He walked through advantages than the existing sugar rain and mud to Smithville in this condition and submitted to examination. His internal injuries are such that he will die before morning. Jack Berkhart, of Massillon, and George Parish, of Norwalk, were slightly injured.

A SENSATIONAL SUIT.

LIMA. O., Jan. 8. - A suit was begun in the common pleas court here Monday in which it is thought something startling will be developed. About twelve years ago the United States Express office here was robbed of $7,300, and no arrests were made. About a year ago the United States Express Co.'s attorney filed suit for the recovery of the money against William and Harmon Colvin, two prominent citizens of this city. This was a big surprise, but it was soon dropped, and it was publicly thought that the matter was settled until Monday, when it was announced in the common pleas court that it would be the next case tried.

Armory Law Unconstitutional. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 8.-Last winter the legislature passed an act authorizing county commissioners to erect armories for the state militia. In a case brought at Springfield to test the constitutionality of the law, Judge Miller Monday morning decided it was unconstitutional. The case will be carried to the supreme court. Judge Miller's decision is affirmed it

The Democrats Uncertain About Foreign Retaliation.

The Ways and Means Committee May Not Even Report the Bill.

Repealing the One-Tenth Sugar Differen tial-Whether the Republicans Will Co-operate With the Democrats in Remedial Legislation a Question.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 .- What action congress will take to end the growing tariff complications between this government and the European powers, or whether any measure will be adopted for that purpose, are questions clouded in uncertainty. Considering the importance of the tariff war to commercial interests, attention given to it by members of congress is noticeably

Chairman Wilson, of the ways and means committee, recently introduced a bill, in accordance with the recommendations in the president's message, te repeal the one-tenth of a cent differential on sugar, which evoked protests from Germany and Austria, and which, it is stated, inspired retaliatory action der a recent decision of the court of by the former government in the form appeals it is held that these remainders of prohibition of American beef. But it is not altogether certain that the ways and means committee will report this bill to the house, nor is it at all assured that the house will pass it in case it emerges from the committee and is given a hearing. Mr. Wilson was asked the prospects of the bill, but did not speak enthusiastically of them. He said. in answer to a question, that its claims for consideration might be brought to the attention of the rules committee after the currency blil had been disposed of, but added that the remaining time of this congress was very short and there would be a great pressure upon the committee for allotment of time for various other important bills. Illinois being the stronghold of the meat business, the representatives from that state have been appealed to to do something in the interest of their constituents. Representative Aldrich cations on the subject, and intends to talk with his colleagues not to suggest legislation, but to ascertain what will be their attitude toward whatever the democrats may propose.

Whether the republicans will co-operate with the democrats in remedial since it is known that the democrats are not agreed upon their course, a faction of them thinking with Mr. Whiting that any tariff legislation will affirmative or negative votes of the republicans might hinge upon whether, in their estimation, the supplementary act proposed would entail greater disschedule, and particularly whether it would reduce the revenue of the government, which was now insufficient to meet its expenses. If the ways and means committee would propose to re-enact the | 43c. reciprocity system, which congress had obliterated with marked discourtesy to Prominent Citizens Sued for $7,300 Stolen | the foreign governments, parties thereto as well as to the detriment of American business, he said sareastically, republicans would co-operate with them heartily. He did not see how Mr. Wilson could be expected to become the leader of a movement to prepare features which senate had imposed on his bill and rough $3.75@4.05, light shippers and fat the senate had imposed on his bill against his opposition.

Seeds by the Million.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The annual seed distribution at the agricultural department has so far resulted in sending out 1,300,000 papers of vegetable seeds to people throughout the country. The work will probably not be completed before May and no flower seeds have been sent out this season. There are still about 6,000,000 papers of seeds awaiting distribution.

Brokers Must Testify. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8. - The court of appeals of the District of Columbia Monday rendered an opinion sustaining the decision of Judge Cole in the case of Messrs. Chapman and Mac-Cartney, the stock brokers, who refused to testify before the senate sugar investigating committee regarding inwill affect several counties in the dividual speculations through their firms. Judge Cole's decision overruled a demurrer filed by the brokers to the government indictment.

Oklahoma WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 .- Senator Marin, Monday, introduced a bill for the admission of Oklahoma as a state. The bill provides for an extension of the area so as to include a part of the ter ritory of the Chickasaw nation.

Judge Clark's Confirmation Deferred. Washington, Jan. 8 .- The senate judiciary committee Monday considered the case of Judge Clark, appointed U. S. district judge for the eastern and middle districts of Tennessee. A sub-committee. consisting of Senators Hill, Lindsay and Platt, was appointed to investigate all the charges and report to the full committee at a later

No Tariff Legislation.

Washington, Jan. 8 .- The republican steering committee attempted to meet Monday morning, but did not muster a quorum. Those present talked informally of the proposed programme. Though no conclusion was reached, members of the conference said that there would be no tariff legislation, not even the correction of what are termed errors in the bill. As to the fight against the income tax, it was understood that Senator Quay would oppose that provision in the appropriation bill, and other republicans would make speeches, but there would be no party fight made upon
